

Dear Bride and Groom,

Congratulations on your engagement. As you embark on your journey toward marriage, you will be faced with many decisions; some will be minor like the color of the linens or the filling for the cake, but others will be important such as the budget, the location, and the guest list. All of these details can be overwhelming, but they don't have to be.

Hiring a wedding planner can ease your mind, reduce your stress, and make your planning experience more enjoyable. After all, you should be savoring the engagement and the wedding day, not worrying about a to-do list. With years of experience and passion for planning, I can guide you through this journey and help you create the wedding of your dreams.

As your wedding planner, my goal is to turn your visions into a reality. I offer advice and assistance through the entire process, from the menu to the dress to the décor. Best of all, I tailor my services to your needs. I don't create cookie-cutter weddings; I produce magical, one-of-a-kind weddings.

Enclosed, you will find information on various packages I offer. Whether you need someone to help you every step of the way or you just need someone to be in charge on the wedding day, I offer a package that will find your needs.

But I offer more than just the services outlined in each package; I offer around-the-clock assistance and sincere concern. No matter what time of night or what day of the week, I am here to answer all of your questions. I treat each wedding as if it was my own, and I promise to make your wedding dreams come true.

Again, congratulations on this magical moment. Be sure to enjoy every minute of it, and remember, "The greatest thing you'll ever learn is just to love, and be loved in return" (Moulin Rouge).

Best,

Mita Productions
